WILLIAM FALCONER, Clock and Watch-

Maker, and Watch-Material Manufacturer, Lawrencekirk, returns his most grateful thanks to the noblemen, gentlemen, and watch makers, who have honoured him with their subscriptions, and also to those who have promised him to do it, and in particular to the watch-makers of Edinburgh, and Montrose, &c. for the encomiums they have wrote in the subscription-paper, on the undertaking, which undertaking is to establish, on an extensive plan, all the necessary branches of watch-making in Scotland, as he makes the materials which used formerly to come from England; and he wishes the subscription filled up as soon as possible, for which reason he has lodged printed addresses to the public, and subscription papers with the following gentlemen, viz. Mr Macpherson watch-maker, and Mr Downie goldsmith, Edinburgh; Mr Hamilton watch-maker, Glasgow; Mr Angus book-binder, Aberdeen; Mr James Milne watch-maker, Montrose; Mr Argo watch-maker, Peterhead; Mr Low watch-maker, Arbroath; Mr Young watch-maker, Perth; Mr Wile merchant, Dundee; Mr Carmichael watch-maker, Greenock; Mr Brownlie watch-maker, Hamilton; Mr Mill watch-maker, St Ninians; Mr Turnbull watch-maker, Dunfermline; and Mr George Murdoch vintner, Lawrencekirk.
He wishes small subscriptions for increasing orders.
Silver watches to be afforded as low as Two Pounds, after the period of three years. He begs subscribers will not delay in honouring him with subscriptions, to enable him to execute a business so necessary and beneficial to the country.
One half of the subscription money is to lie in a banker's hand, so that in case of his failure, subscribers cannot lose half their money. He hopes the public will see the propriety of supporting this undertaking, as the manufacturing of watches and all their materials in Scotland, could not fail of saving and bringing much money to the country, and giving bread to industrious mechanics ready to execute this undertaking.

HOUSE OF PEERS.

FRIDAY, July 30.

THE Royal assent was given by commission to nine public and eight private bills; the Commissioners were, the Lord Chancellor, the Archbishop of Canterbury, and the Marquis of Caermarthen.

Deferred till Wednesday the further proceedings in the cause of Folliott and Elphinstone.

The Earl of Carlisle then called their Lordships attention to the order of the day before, for reading the India bill a second time on Monday. He said he could not but remark the very precipitate and clandestine manner in which this bill had been read a first time. It was taking the House by surprise.
He would, therefore, move that the order for reading the bill a second time on that day be discharged.

Lord Sydney objected to the motion.

It was supported by Lord Stormont. The Duke of Richmond and Lord Thurlow spoke against it.

The question being then put, the House divided, when there appeared Non Contents 17.

Contents 4.

Adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE OF COMMONS.

FRIDAY, July 30.

DEFERRED till Monday the smuggling laws, horse duty and silk bills: Also the supply.

Withdrew the hat-duty bill.

Mr Pitt then presented to the House the bill for laying an additional duty on windows, in lieu of the reduction of the duties on tea. This bill having been read a first time, and the question being put that it be read a second time,

Mr Haffey said he wished to know whether it was contrary to rule to have the bill printed for the information of the House.

Mr Pitt replied, he should have no objection to the bill being printed if it ever had been customary; but as the chief points in the present bill would consist in the manner in which it was printed up, the bill in its present form could give but little information. He then moved that the bill be read a second time on Monday, and committed for Wednesday next, which was agreed to.

Mr Dundas gave notice, that on Monday next, he should make a motion for restoring the forfeited estates to their owners.

Mr Powys presented a petition from the ancient inhabitants of Quebec, stating, that at the capture of that place, they were promised that the British Constitution should be established; they had therefore cheerfully submitted, and expected the Royal word would have been kept; and now wished to have the benefit of the Habeas Corpus Act, and of optional juries, &c. Mr Powys remarked on the great importance of the subject, and concluded with wishing the House would bear in mind that the petitioners would have an early claim to a hearing in the next session; for which purpose he should move that the petition be on the table; and he hoped that during the recess the Right Honourable Chancellor of the Exchequer would turn the matter in his mind, and come next session prepared on the subject.

The House then went into a Committee of Ways and Means, Mr Steele in the Chair, when Mr Rose moved, that 1,500,000 l. in Exchequer bills be granted his Majesty, and that the sum of 4,000,000 l. by Exchequer bills, be also raised.

Mr Rose next remarked, that the present duty on wax candles being 6 d. per lb. was a great inducement to smuggling, therefore, to prevent the revenue being defrauded, he moved that the present duties do cease, determine, and be no longer paid. He then moved that the sum of 3 d. per lb. avertedupis be laid on all wax candles made; and that the sum of 2 d. per lb. avertedupis be levied on every pound of wax imported, which being agreed to, he next moved that the sum of 2 d. per lb. avertedupis be levied on all spermaceti candles made.
These regulations, he said, would bring in to the full as much if not more, than the present duties, and the public, at the same time, be served cheaper. He then stated to the Committee, that it was intended to oblige every maker of wax candles to take out a license, and accordingly moved, "That every maker of wax candles pay annually 5 l. for such license, and that every dealer in wax candles annually pay the sum of 5 s. for a license, both which motions were agreed to."

Mr Plumer desired to know when the bill would be brought in relative to the sums to be charged for licenses to those who deal in exciseable commodities.

Mr Steele replied, that owing to several alterations which had been made in it with respect to distillers, rectifiers of spirits, &c. the bill had been postponed, but he believed it would be ready by Monday next.

Mr Burke gave a long history of India, and entered into a justification of the reports of the Secret and Select Committees, by which he said it was plain the affairs of the Company were in a state of ruin, owing to the misconduct of their servants abroad. He likewise informed the House, that by the most authentic accounts received from India, there was a famine in Oude, and so apprehensive was the Government of Bengal of the like calamity, that they had come to a resolution not to suffer the exportation of rice or other provisions. He had seen a letter, which mentioned that Almas Ali Cawn, a native of Oude, and who was a person of consequence, had been, by order of a servant of the Company, betrayed, seized, taken prisoner, and put to death, without any charge, trial, or condemnation, merely to answer a political purpose. He had likewise seen an account, which stated, that princesses, and other females, who formerly lived in happiness, splendour, and ease, had been seized, their property taken from them, and themselves turned into the streets to beg. Mr Burke mentioned a variety of other cruelties, which, he said, had been practised by order of the chief servant of the Company, whom the natives, from his behaviour, had named Haman Abdowla; and it was a melancholy truth, that they were not deceived when they said that Haman Abdowla must be supported from England, or he never would dare to take such steps as he did. That Haman Abdowla was supported, was plain by the bill which had lately passed the House, for it was modelled just as his agents chose; and the India Bench, which was properly placed near, but above the Treasury Bench (being under its control) were able to do as they pleased. He stated, that the resources which the India Company built their hopes on were founded on the plunder that was expected, and not on the fair and just profits of commerce. He also stated some curious particulars relative to the articles of salt and rice, and throughout the whole of his speech displayed a great knowledge of the affairs of the Company, and the conduct of their servants. Mr Burke concluded with moving, "That there be laid before the House copies of all papers relative to the seizing and putting to death Almas Ali Cawn, a native of the province of Oude;" which was seconded by Mr Sheridan.

Mr Pitt said, he did not see so what end the motion could lead, but he had no objection to its being made, and accordingly it was agreed to.

Major Scott said, he was glad to hear the Right Hon.
Gentleman make the motion, but he believed he was mistaken as to the fact relative to Almas Ali Cawn, and explained to the House some particulars respecting the steps which had been taken in Oude, by replacing the Viceroy, and fixing guarantees for the payment of certain debts due to the Company. With respect to the famine, he was happy to say, that by some rains which had lately fallen in the upper parts of Hindostan the crops were much better than was expected, and the famine itself was much abated.

Mr Burke replied with much severity, and concluded with moving,

"That copies of all papers relative to the sums of money demanded of the mother and grandmother of the Subah of Oude, in the year 1782, be laid before the House."

Major Scott seconded the motion, saying he wished the matter to be fully discussed.

Mr Burke, after a short preface, again moved, "That the produce of the sale of the jewels and other property taken from the grandmother and mother of the Subah of Oude, be also laid before the House."

Mr Pitt objected to the motion, saying he could not see to what end it led, nor that there was any thing before the House to warrant the motion; nor, if the motion was agreed to, could he tell who was to furnish the papers.

Mr Burke in very animated terms pointed out the cruelty that had been practised on those females, merely because they were possessed of property which Mr Hastings had seized, as he pretended, for the India Company; but about 300,000 l. had not been accounted for; it was the duty, therefore, of the House to inspect into the matter, and stop such iniquitous proceedings. Mr Burke was proceeding, when Mr Pitt rose, and moved the order of the day.

Mr Burke, irritated at the abrupt manner in which this was done, claimed the attention of the House, appealing to their feelings in the most pathetic manner, and reminding them that there was a God, who saw and knew all their proceedings, and who punished iniquity, not always in the place directly where the rapin and murder were committed, but in other parts of the kingdom; and we might attribute the loss of America, and the misery at home, as punishments of the Almighty for our evil and corrupt dealings to the innocent natives of Hindostan.
The question, he said, was a new one, and therefore he had a right to speak; and as they would not hear the remainder of his motions, he would read them as a part of his speech, which he did. The motions went to lay before the House information of different cruelties practised in India, and the state of the Company's finances there.

The question being afterwards put on the order of the day, the same was carried, and several matters being adjourned over till Monday, the House went into a Committee on the India relief bill.

Mr Denbigh, when the Chairman read the clause relative to respecting the payment of the 923,519 l. 5 s. 2 d. due to the public for duties, wished to add, as an amendment after the sum, these words, "on condition of their paying the sum of five per cent. per annum for the same." The reason of his making this motion (he said) proceeded from the fairest principles; for, as Government had been obliged to pay interest for the money which it borrowed to lend the India Company, it was but justice that the Company should pay an equal interest.

Mr Pitt said the Company were not able to do it, and as the residue of the 923,519 l. 5 s. 2 d. was meant as a relief to them, it would not be generous to expect interest.

Mr Haffey acknowledged, that government had, by its regulations, interfered and distressed the Company; yet he was of opinion that it was nothing but justice that the Company should pay interest for the money lent, as the House had no right to levy taxes to pay for money lent to the Company.

The question was then put on the amendment and negated,

The bill was then read till they came to the clause for allowing the Company to make dividend of eight per cent. while they are debtors for the above sum. On this clause

Mr Pitt remarked, that it might appear strange to suffer the Company to make so large a dividend; but he had been informed that foreigners held a great part of the stock, and on the first notice of the dividend being lowered, they were alarmed, and sold out, which had greatly affected the stocks.
To support credit, therefore, he should move that they be allowed to make the usual dividend, notwithstanding the present situation of their affairs, which was agreed to; after which the Committee broke up, and the report was ordered to be made on Monday.

L O N D O N—July 31.
It being known that a scheme is in agitation to lower the rate of interest on all sums borrowed after the 1st of September next, the bankers have called a meeting to consider of this new plan, and to oppose it. Government say it will serve public credit, but the monied men think it will injure the country. Some time since the minister said this three per cents. would rise to 90 l. this, it seems, was his plan.

Yesterday a meeting was held of the holders of Navy bills, when they again took into consideration the treatment they had received from government, and the measures which were necessary to their deliverance. Mr Hoare informed that meeting, that the minister had agreed to postpone the day on which the subscription should close from the thirty-first of July to the thirty-first of August, that gentleman might make up their minds how to act, either by accepting his terms, or retaining their bills until the minister should be enabled to discharge them. Mr Hamet, who attended for the first time, was resolute in his censures upon the minister's conduct; he declared he would not accept of stock at a farthing less than he was entitled to, and hoped other bill-holders would act in the same manner. After a good deal of conversation, it was agreed to petition Parliament, and several resolutions were entered into, and ordered to be laid before the public.—The meeting then adjourned to Wednesday next.

Last night arrived in town his Excellency the Duke de Chartres, and the Prince de Leury, from France. They set out this day for Brightelmston, accompanied by the Duke de Lauxun, on a visit to the Prince of Wales.

WIND AT DEAL, JULY 30. S. S. W.

EDINBURGH.

Extract of a letter from London, July 31.

"The Lord Advocate of Scotland, on Monday, the 29th ult. presented to the House (according to order) a bill for altering and amending an act, passed in the 17th year of his present Majesty, entitled, 'An act for expediting the sale of ' estates in Scotland, belonging to the York-Building Com' pany, for the relief of their creditors,' in order to have the unsatisfied purchase-money of the several estates distributed among the several creditors, under the direction of the Court of Chancery, subject to certain restrictions; and the same was received and read the first time, and ordered to be read a second time."

Mr HENDERSON'S BENEFIT is fixed for MON-DAY next.

By letters received in town from India, we learn, that Colonel Fullerton was, on the 18th of December last, at Coimbatore with an army of nearly 1800 Europeans, 18 battalions of Sepoys, and 65 pieces of cannon, besides cavalry and irregulars. He marched from Darampore in Ochober, and reduced the fort of Palacatchery, which commands the passage to the Malabar coast, and is only 50 miles from the Malabar sea.
He has conquered a country yielding between 6 and 700,000 of yearly revenue, and was preparing to return to Trichinopoly with his army, peace being established with Tipoo Saib.

Other letters are received in Edinburgh from India, dated in February last, which mention that Tipoo Saib had not disbanded his army; the cessation of arms still continued, but he had not agreed to a peace; and he pretended that the English had broke through all faith, by attacking and plundering in-ally the Rajah of Cannanore. It was supposed, if a proper opportunity offered, Tipoo Saib would renew hostilities.

Yesterday, his Majesty's purse of one hundred guineas was run for over the funds of Leith, and won by,

Mr Menon's bay colt, Sir Peter Piller 1 1

Mr Robertson's bay colt, Balloon 2 1

Duke of Hamilton's grey mare, Expectation 3 3

This day, the Ladies Subscription Purse of Fifty Pounds was run for over the same course, and won by Mr Robertson's bay horse, Gladiator 2 1 1

Duke Hamilton's chestnut horse Wickham 1 2 2

Mr Menon's bay colt Smart 3 3

Mr Peacock's chestnut mare Gypsy dit.

Mr Maclean's bay horse Leapfrog dit.

This race was the best run of any upon Leith funds for many years back.

The City of Edinburgh's plate is determined in favour of Mr Lee; it having been proved that horse never gained a plate before.

Friday last, a purse of thirty guineas was run for over Leith course, and won by Mr Lee's bay horse, Come-if you can 1 1

Mr Thomson's bay gelding, Sober John 2 1

Saturday's purse of thirty guineas, over the same course, was won by Mr Graham's bay mare, Little-thought-on 1 1

Mr Maclean's bay horse, Leapfrog 2 1

Mr Thomson's bay mare, High Adne 3 3

Among the persons who were unfortunately killed yesterday last night by the fall of a house at the fire in Abchurch Lane, Lombard-Street, London, was Mr James Young, son to Mr John Young, writer in this city, a youth of the most amiable disposition, and the most promising abilities. He is sincerely regretted by every one who knew him; and the impression which the loss of a favourite son, in so melancholy a manner, has made on the minds of his disconsolate parents, may be easily conceived.

Yesterday, the Jury, in the case of Perer McGregor, and George Lawrie, tried before the High Court of Judiciary on Monday, for being concerned in the riot at Canonmills on the 4th of June, (as mentioned in our last,) returned their verdict, all in one voice finding McGregor guilty of throwing stones, and being very active in that riot; finding Lawrie guilty of breaking down some calks belonging to the proprietors of the distillery; and finding the other parties of the indignity not proven. The Court delayed pronouncing sentence against these pannels, and likewise against John Frazer, found guilty last week of being concerned in the same riot, and of insulting the Sheriff, when in the exercise of his duty, till Friday next.

This day, the Presbytery of Edinburgh sustained the Presentation given by the Magistrates and Town-Council to the Rev. Mr. Simpson, to supply the vacancy in the Tolbooth Church, vacant by the death of Dr. Webster. A very long debate, however, took place, as to the powers of the Council to present to a particular charge, when it was carried by a great majority, that they could only present to the city at large, which, it is said, is one parish only. Mr. Simpson's presentation was therefore sustained on that ground alone. Against this judgment, Dean of Guild Macdowall protested, in name of the Town-Council, for leave to appeal to the Synod. Several Reverend Members also entered their dissent.

The Presbytery have appointed Thursday the 19th for receiving the Rev. Mr. Walker as minister of the Canongate, in room of Dr. Lothian deceased.

Saturday night last, three boys broke into the Gorbals toll-house, and stole from thence near 200l. Sterling. They were apprehended on Monday, and lodged in the tolbooth of Glasgow.

On Monday last, the wife of John Stiel, flak-gauze weaver in Anderson, was safely delivered of two boys and a girl; and on Thursday they were all three baptised by the Rev. Mr. James Stewart in Anderson church. They are all fine healthy children.

Extract of a letter from Forres, July 30. 1784.

"On the 28th instant, died at Mundole near this place, John Thomson day-labourer, aged 107, who had by his first wife 28 children, and by a second wife 17, was father to 45, grandfather to 86, great-grandfather to 97, and great-great-grandfather to 23; in all 251. And what was very surprising, he retained his senses, and followed his usual employment, to the day preceding his death."

THE most surprising GIGANTIC TWIN BROTHERS, are to be seen in an elegant apartment at Mr. Robertson's, Ladies Hair-dresser, No. 2. opposite to the Register-office, Prince's-street.

These wonderful IRISH GIANTS are but 23 years of age, and measure very near Eight Feet high: These extraordinary young men have had the honour to be seen by their Majesties and Royal Family, at Windsor, in November 1783, with great applause; and likewise by Gentlemen of the Faculty, Royal Society, and other admirers of natural curiosity, who allow them to surpass any thing of the same kind, ever offered to the public; their address is singular and pleasing; their persons truly shaped and proportioned to their height, and affords an agreeable surprise. They excel the famous Maximilian Miller, born in 1674, shown in London in 1733; and the late Swedish Giant will scarce admit of comparison. To enumerate every particular would be too tedious; let it suffice to say, that they are beyond what is set forth in ancient or modern history. The ingenious and judicious, who have honoured them with their company, have bestowed the most lavish encomiums; and on their departure, have expressed their approbation and satisfaction: In short, the sight of them is more than the mind can conceive, the tongue express, or pencil delineate; and stands without a parallel in this or any other country.

"Take them for all in all, we shall scarce look on their like again."

Ladies and Gentlemen are respectfully informed, that their hours of admittance, are from ten in the morning to three in the afternoon, and from four to nine in the evening, every day, (Sundays excepted).

Price of Admittance, One Shilling.

SALE OF LANDS, MANSION-HOUSE, &c.

IN THE STEWARTRY OF KIRKCUDBRIGHT.

TO be SOLD, the MAINS OF MOLLANCE, with the Mansion-House, Offices, Garden and Policy, situated within twelve miles of Kirkcudbright, and sixteen miles of Dumfries, on the great military road from thence to Ireland; as also, as much of the adjoining Farms to the extent of 1000l. per annum, or more, as purchasers may incline.

The House is modern, being built about thirty years ago, large and commodious, and with a complete set of offices, is in the very best repair. The situation is fine, and commands very extensive prospects of the adjacent country, which is remarkably pleasant, and well cultivated. There is about 50 acres of wood in the policy, part of which is fall grown, part lately planted, and all in a most thriving condition.

The fertility of these Lands is too well known to need description, and they are occupied by a set of as wealthy, industrious, and intelligent tenants as any in that country; but are still capable of great improvement, by means of well made, of which there is abundance within these lands, and in the neighbourhood. Coal and Lime are brought by water-carriage within four miles of the premises, where also the produce may be exported.

The Lands are all inclosed and subdivided, and the farms-standings are all either lately built or in the best repair.

James Carter, overseer at Mollance, will show the premises.

In the Press, and speedily will be published (by Subscription),
A Treatise on Ploughs and Wheel Carriages,
By JAMES SMALL, Wright and Smith, from Blackadder-mountain, Berwickshire, now at Rockbank, near Forth, Mid-Lothian.

THE Author has just ground to believe, that this Treatise, upon a subject of so much importance, will be very useful to the country gentlemen and farmers, and to every person concerned in the construction of Ploughs and Wheel Carriages; because the observations and directions in this Treatise are the result of many years experience, in the construction of Ploughs and Wheel Carriages, and they have since been submitted to the examination of a person of the first eminence in the theory of Mechanics.

The farmer, therefore, will here find both the fact and the principle upon which the improvement rests, very fully explained.

Subscriptions are taken in by W. Creech and C. Elliot, Edinburgh, and T. Cadell, London.

Commissions addressed to John Small, Edinburgh, will be properly attended to.

SECOND NOTICE.

IN the process of making and file, Mrs. WILHELMINA STEWART alias MAITLAND, relict of David Maitland of Soutra, Esq. and her Attorney, with concurrence of his Majesty's Advocate, against Thomas Maitland, brother-german of the said deceased David Maitland, and John Hamilton now of Redhall and their creditors; Lord Etkin, by interlocutor, dated 14th July 1784, nominated and appointed, the Lord Kennet of court to rank the creditors, and assigned the 14th of November next, to the whole creditors to produce, all their claims, rights, and diligencies, competent to them, against the bankrupts or their estates; and that for the first time, with certification, as in a reduction and improbation, and the same day, to the creditors to depone upon the verity of their debts; and appointed this notice thereof, to be as the same may come to the knowledge of all concerned.

O. M. KIRKPATRICK, Clerk.

GENERAL POST OFFICE.

July the 16th, 1784.

BY an act of the last, and also one of the present sessions of Parliament, for establishing certain regulations concerning the postage and conveyance of letters and packets by the Post between Great Britain and Ireland, to take place on the first of August next, all letters and packets are to be charged and paid for according to the present rates of postage in Great Britain, and the rates established by the act of Parliament in Ireland, except to and from certain persons who, by virtue of their respective offices in Great Britain and Ireland, now send and receive letters and packets free from the duty of postage. Provided that all such letters and packets to be sent shall relate to the business of their respective offices, and that there shall be certified on the outside of such letters and packets, under the hand-writing of such officers respectively, to be as his Majesty's Secretary, and that such letters and packets shall be sealed with the seal of the office, or officer sending the same. And in case any such officers shall receive under cover to them any letters or packets intended for, or directed to other persons, all such officers are required to send the same to the General Post-Office in London or Dublin, in order that such letters and packets may be charged with the duty of postage; if being the true intent and meaning of this act, that the privilege of sending and receiving letters and packets by such officers, shall extend to such letters and packets only, as relate to the business of their respective offices.

It is also enacted, that all persons may find printed votes, proceedings in Parliament, and printed news papers, to and from Great Britain and Ireland, at the rate of one penny only for each printed vote, proceeding in Parliament, and each printed news paper, in covers open at both ends, to be paid when they are put into any Post-Office in Great Britain; but the penny need not be paid before hand upon papers from Ireland, as it can be received on their delivery in Great Britain.

It is likewise enacted, that his Majesty's Postmaster-General may authorise certain persons to send and receive printed votes, proceedings in Parliament, and printed news papers, by the post to and from Great Britain and Ireland, at the rate of one penny only for each printed vote, and proceeding in Parliament, and each printed news paper, over and above the printed price thereof.

All persons therefore who wish to be supplied with news papers for Ireland, or from Ireland for Great Britain, may have them regularly sent, by applying by letter, or otherwise, to the Postmaster of any town in Great Britain, where a news paper is printed; or to the Secretary of the General Post-Office in Dublin.

The price of a paper six times a week, at 3d. each, with 1d. for the postage, will be 5l. 4s. per annum; an evening paper three times a week, at 12 s. per annum, and in proportion for the London Gazette, other papers, &c. And by an act passed in the last sessions of the Parliament of Ireland, each British news paper, &c. will in all parts of Ireland be delivered at the rate of 1d. postage for each; all which, upon an average, will be less than the price heretofore paid for news papers furnished by the public offices in Great Britain and Ireland.

By order of the Postmaster-General,
DAVID ROSS, Sec.

RUSSIA IRON.

TO be SOLD, a parcel of best Old and New SAELE IRON.—Apply to A child Miller coach-maker, Edinburgh; or to David Liddell, at the Old Smith and Wright-work Factory, Leith.

BERWICKSHIRE.

THE Copy of the Berwickshire having observed an advertisement in this paper of Saturday last, from five of the Promoters before the Sheriff-court of that county, takes this method of informing them, that they are mistaken in supposing the letter alluded to in the preamble of their resolutions to have been kept up, or withheld. It came into his hands, after a short delay, occasioned by his absence from the country. But, upon considering the same, he thought it unnecessary to comply with the request therein contained, as there was then reason to believe, from the opposition which had already taken place to the bill in contemplation, that the subject would be abandoned; which, as he is informed, it had since actually been. He thought, besides, that there could be no harm in delaying to give the gentlemen of the county the trouble of attendance on a meeting, until it was known with certainty (which is not the case at present) that a bill, such as that complained of, had actually been moved for in Parliament, and what were the innovations thereby proposed.

NOTICE.

To the Creditors of DUNCAN CLARK, Tobaccoist in Edinburgh, I O meet by themselves, or persons properly authorised to act for them, within the house of Charles Small victner in Edinburgh, upon Monday next the 9th current, at six o'clock in the evening, when matters of importance will be laid before them; and it is necessary that they bring along with them their grounds of debt, and oaths of verity thereon.

That HOUSE possessed by Mr. Alexander Fraser vintner, consisting of five rooms, kitchen, good cellars and other conveniences, well situated, and has been long a well frequented tavern.

THAT Extensive FARM of UPPER and NETHER PHILLIPHAUGHS, with the MILL thereto belonging, lying within a mile of the town of Selkirk, upon the banks of the waters of Etterick and Yarrow, consisting of upwards of 2500 acres of arable and pasture Land. The ground is remarkable, and well known to breed the healthiest and best sheep in the country, free of many diseases and disorders that other farms are subject to. There is about 100 acres of haugh ground, of a rich soil, and capable of the highest improvement, on account of its vicinity to water. There is a genteel house upon the farm fit to accommodate a large family, with a convenient set of offices. The Lands will be let either jointly or separately, at Selkirk, upon the 24th day of August, 1784.

Any inclination to offer, may apply to Andrew Henderson writer in Selkirk, who will satisfy them as to further particulars.

Not to be repeated.

FARMS IN BERWICKSHIRE.

TO be LET and entered to at Whitehead 1785.

THE Lands of LEDGERTWOOD, MORISTON, and ADDISTON, in the parish of Ledgertwood, and on the great road between Kelso and Edinburgh.

These Farms are extensive, consisting in whole of about three thousand acres, well calculated for every kind of culture, and in particular for turnip; great quantities of which have been lately raised there. The turnpike road gives good access to lime, which is brought at an easy rate, as a back carriage, by carts that go with meal and corn to Edinburgh and Dalkeith. And these towns, with the adjoining mills on Leader Water, give these Farms the best market for grain in the south of Scotland.

The fields are clean, and in good order.

Mr. James Nisbet farmer at Ledgertwood, or the Reverend Mr. William Gullan minister there, will furnish people inclining to look at the ground, with copies of the measurement of the different fields in each farm, and will also send with them a proper person to show the marches, and let them know the names of the fields.

The landlord will give necessary buildings, and encourage inclosing, on conditions which will be seen in the hands of Robert Ainslie at Barrowhill, near Dunfermline, to whom proposals for taking the farms may be made.

SALE OF LANDS IN FIFE.

TO be SOLD by public roup, within John's Coffeehouse, Edinburgh, upon Wednesday the 22d December 1784, betwixt the hours of five and six afternoon.

All and Hail the Town and Lands of LANGRAW, lying in the parish of Cameron; also, the Town and Lands of DENHEAD, with the Scams of Coal thereto, lying in the parish of St. Andrews, and both in the county of Fife, all holding of the Crown.

Langraw is an extensive fine farm, of a rich soil, and capable of great improvement; lies two short miles south of St. Andrews, and is at present very low rented. There is on the lands a neat mansion-house, with offices, and a pigeon house and garden, &c. which, for some years past, have been let separate from the farm and farm-houses. From the pleasantness and vicinity of the situation, this would make a desirable and easy retreat from St. Andrews.

The lands of Denhead lie about an equal distance west from St. Andrews, are mostly inclosed, and still very improvable. The coal in these lands, although it has not been wrought for some years past, is well known to be of a good quality and valuable, and is level free. Besides the ordinary farm-house and offices, there is every convenience and accommodation for a brewery on these lands, which but lately was carried on there with success.

Any person wanting to see the lands, or to know the present rental, or other particulars, may apply to Robert Methven writer in St. Andrews.

The title-deeds, with the articles of sale, &c. are in the hands of James Kettle writer in Edinburgh; and any person wishing to purchase by private bargain, may apply to him.

LOT II.

A DEBT of L. 80 Sterling, constituted by heritable bond and infeftment, due to George Bell of Scalehill, the common debtor, by Archibald Douglas of Dornock, and the Balance of a personal Bond; for both of which Mr Bell is ranked as a creditor upon the estate of Dornock, extending together, at Candlemas 1784, with interest, to 196 l. 10s. 5d. Sterl. whereof full payment will be drawn.

The present tenant of Scalehill is bound by missive under his hand, in the event of a sale, to remove whenever required. A process of removing has accordingly been brought by the factor against him, as well as against the common debtor and his tenant, for a small part of the estate formerly in his natural possession (valued at 5 l. 15 s. yearly) set by him during the pendency of the ranking; both of which processes may probably be determined before the sale. There is no stipend payable out of these lands, nor any schoolmaster's salary. They consist of 160 acres or thereby, mostly dry arable land, pleasantly situated upon the banks of the water of Milk, within 200 or 300 yards of the great turnpike road from Greta to Moffat, and may be improved at small expence, as they contain a very great quantity of shell marle of the best quality, which can be easily raised, and is a scarce article in that part of the country.

Mungo Dobie, writer in Lockerby, the factor, will show the lands; and the title deeds, which are clear, with the articles of roup, may be seen in the hands of Mr George Kirkpatrick depute clerk of session, or John Syme writer to the signet, Edinburgh.

There are extensive woods upon these lands, valued at 2823 l. Upset price 9300 l.

Waterside is at present possessed upon an old family lease, of which seventeen years are to run, at the low rent of 28 l. 13 s. 11 d. but are worth 100 l.; the woods are valued at 240 l. Upset price 1470 l. and afford a freehold-qualification upon the old extent.

For the encouragement of purchasers, the whole estate will be exposed to sale in one lot at 19,800 l.

The whole lands hold of the Crown, and consist of above 14,000 acres. The Mansion-house and office-houses are in good repair, surrounded with policy, and pleasantly situated on the river Kenn, which near the house forms a beautiful cascade, and a little below there is an excellent salmon-fishing. The lands afford three freehold-qualifications, besides the one upon Waterside. The farm-houses are in good repair; the teinds of the whole estate are valued, and the title-deeds quite clear, and a search of incumbrances can be shown.

The rental, valuation of woods, state of grassums paid, progress of writs, and articles of sale, to be seen in the hands of John Syme, writer to the signet; to whom, or to David Russell accountant, application may be made for further particulars.
